

BURNS NIGHT

FRIDAY 25TH JANUARY

FROM 7PM £25 PER PERSON

We start by welcoming our guests upstairs to the evening with some piped music
(no pipers unfortunately)

Our speaker will then conduct the Selkirk Grace.

The Haggis will then be brought to its destination for the toast, where our whisky bearer will provide you with a shot to raise at the appropriate time.

The haggis will then be taken to the kitchen as your first course will arrive. The rest of the evening will have a reading of Burns Poetry, A very Scottish quiz where Table v Table will compete for a hamper prize, shortly followed by the Immortal Memory speech and toast to Robert burns.

After all is done we will provide some lively music in the bar if you wish to enjoy, or continue your night at your table with all your friends new and old.
